

Shauna King, Ed.S.

Shauna King, Ed.S. is passionate about helping teachers keep their skills sharp and their students at the top of their learning game. She is so committed to this mission that she founded a professional development organization to assist schools with positive school culture and climate initiatives.

Shauna is currently an education consultant and graduate course instructor for LaSalle University and The Regional Training Center. She has worked in various roles in public and non-public school settings, including principal, intervention specialist, peer mediation teacher and classroom teacher. Shauna worked as the PBIS coordinator in one of the largest school districts in the state of Maryland. Because of her commitment to this initiative, she was invited to join the Maryland PBIS State Leadership Team where she served as a state level trainer.

Shauna earned a Bachelor of Science in Education from Morgan State University, a Masters of Education from Bowie State University and an Education Specialist degree in Adult Learning from Walden University.

Shauna is a proud wife and mother of two elementary-age children, who are the joy of her life. She is also an active member of her church where she serves on the Leadership Team and as Chairperson of the Drama Ministry.

Workshops presented by Shauna include:

- Battling the Bully: Brain-Inspired Responses to Bullying
- Beyond Poverty: Brain-Inspired Ways to Understand and Respond to Poverty
